Challenges in Life Science as a Motivation to support Riva Digital

Potential Solutions

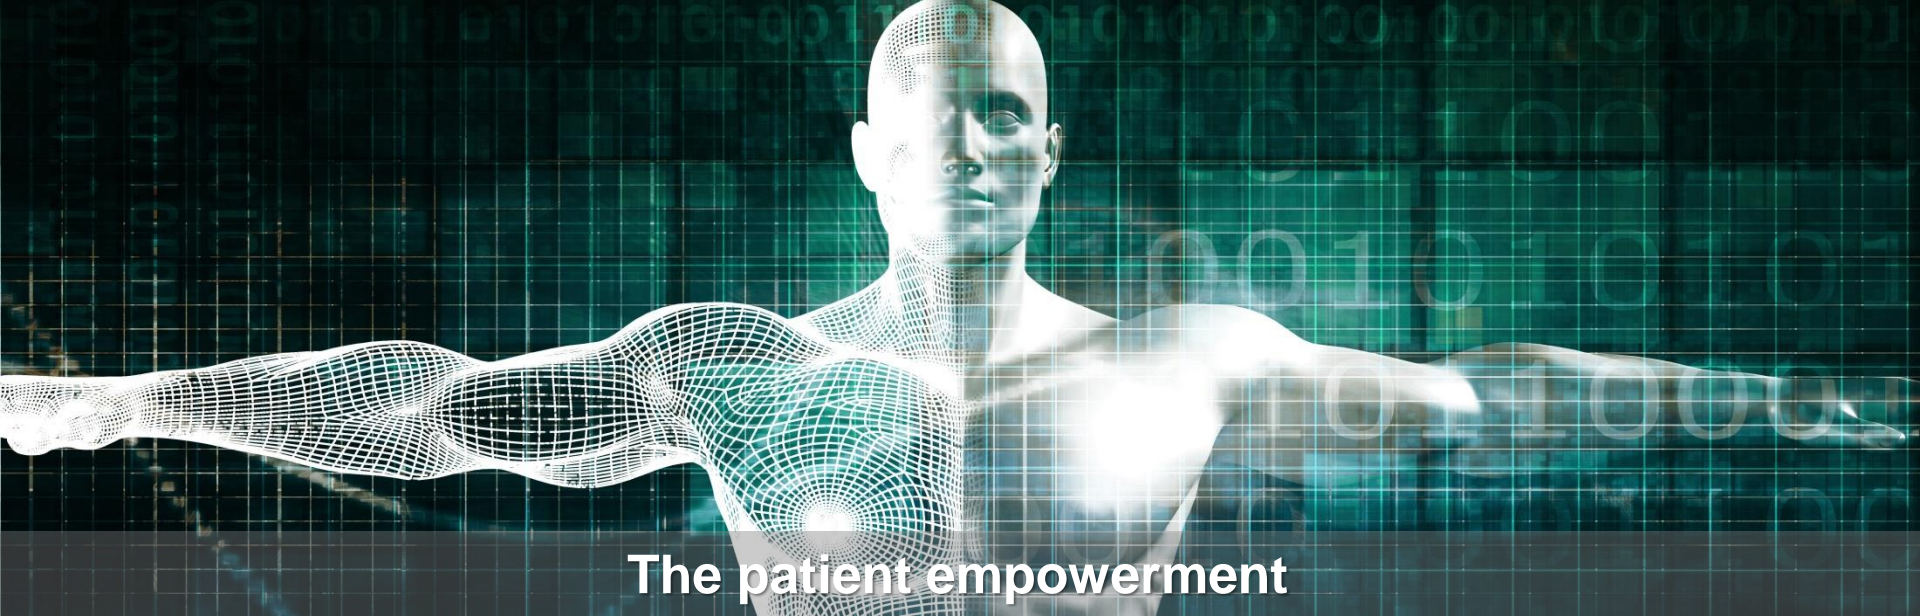

- Outcome based model
- Wearables
- Insights through data sharing
- More focus on prevention
- Self managed health
- Professionals on demand

Challenges for patients

- Increasing costs
- Inconsistent platforms
- Intransparent billing
- Inconvenience/adherence

The patient empowerment

The transformation of current healthcare is not a purely technological change, it's a cultural transformation.

It's the beginning of a new era in healthcare where patients are placed in the center and take control of their health.
